

BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA) DEGREE WITH A MAJOR IN ENGLISH

Program Learning Outcomes for the BA Degree with a Major in English

Upon completing the BA degree with a major in English, students will be able to demonstrate:

1. Competence in literary and cultural analysis.
2. Understanding of literature and culture in relation to its historical and socio-cultural contexts.
3. Disciplinary-specific methodological, critical, and theoretical training.
4. Critical writing skills in papers of varying length.
5. Disciplinary-specific research knowledge.

Requirements for the BA Degree with a Major in English

For general university requirements, see Graduation Requirements \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements/\). Students pursuing the BA degree with a major in English must complete:

- A minimum of 11 courses (33-36 credit hours, depending on course selection) to satisfy major requirements.
- A minimum of 120 credit hours to satisfy degree requirements.
- A minimum of 7 courses (21 credit hours) taken at the 300-level or above.
- A maximum of 4 courses (12 credit hours) from study abroad or transfer credit. For additional departmental guidelines regarding transfer credit, see the Policies (p. 5) tab.
- The requirements for one area of specialization (see below for areas of specialization). When students declare the major \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-opportunities/majors-minors-certificates/#text\) in English, students must additionally identify and declare one of four areas of specialization, either in:
 - Culture and Social Change (p. 3), or
 - Literature and Literary History (p. 3), or
 - Science, Medicine, and the Environment (p. 4), or
 - Visual and Comparative Media (p. 5).

Because of the common core requirements, it is possible for students to change their area of specialization at any time, even after initially declaring the major. To do so, please contact the Office of the Registrar \(registrar@rice.edu\).

AP course credit is not permitted to count towards the major. The department recommends that all English majors take courses in British and American history and, if they plan to do graduate work, at least 6 credit hours of upper-level coursework in a foreign language.

The courses listed below satisfy the requirements for this major. In certain instances, courses not on this official list may be substituted upon approval of the major's academic advisor, or where applicable, the department's Director of Undergraduate Studies. (Course substitutions must be formally applied and entered into Degree Works by the major's Official Certifier (<https://registrar.rice.edu/facstaff/degreeworks/officialcertifier/>.) Students and their academic advisors should identify and clearly document the courses to be taken.

Footnotes and Additional Information

^{*} Note: University Graduation Requirements include 31 credit hours, comprised of Distribution Requirements (Groups I, II, and III), FWIS, and LPAP coursework. In some instances, courses satisfying FWIS or distribution requirements may additionally meet other requirements, such as the Analyzing Diversity (AD) requirement, or some of the student's declared major, minor, or certificate requirements. Additional Credit Hours to Complete Degree Requirements include general electives, coursework completed as upper-level, residency (hours taken at Rice), and/or any other additional academic program requirements.

² The Senior Seminar and Research Workshop consists of the year-long, 6 credit hour senior seminar (ENGL 410) and research workshop (ENGL 411).

Course Lists to Satisfy Requirements

The following lists of courses can be used to satisfy the requirements of the major when available. Specific course offerings will vary from semester to semester. Courses not on the list may be taken upon approval of the department's Director of Undergraduate Studies. Requirements fulfilled by special topics field courses can vary.

Pre-1800 and Pre-1900 (Historical Foundations)

Students must complete a total of 3 courses (9 credit hours) at the 200-level or above in periods before 1900. Of the 3 courses, 2 courses (6 credit hours) must be from the approved Pre-1800 coursework, but only one may be a Shakespeare course. The third required course may be an additional course from the Pre-1800 coursework or an approved Pre-1900 course.

Areas of Specialization

Students must complete the requirements as listed for one of the following areas of specialization as offered by the English major. A total of 3 courses (9-12 credit hours, depending on course selection) must be taken in the area of specialization.

Please note: When applicable, students may count one course from Core Requirements (the Pre-1800 and Pre-1900 (Historical Foundations)) or the Critical Race, Postcolonial, and Gender Studies (Diverse Traditions) toward their chosen area of specialization. Additional coursework would then be required in order to complete a minimum of 11 courses (33-36 credit hours, depending on course selection) to satisfy major requirements. Please see an advisor for more information.

Area of Specialization: Culture and Social Change

To fulfill the remaining English major requirements, students pursuing the Culture and Social Change area of specialization must complete:

Transfer Credit

For Rice University's policy regarding transfer credit, see Transfer Credit (<https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/transfer-credit/>). Some departments and programs have additional restrictions on transfer credit. The Office of Academic Advising maintains the university's official list of transfer credit advisors (<https://oaa.rice.edu/advising-network/transfer-credit-advisors/>) on their website: <https://oaa.rice.edu>. Students are encouraged to meet with their academic program's transfer credit advisor when considering transfer credit possibilities.

Departmental Transfer Credit Guidelines

Students pursuing the major in English should be aware of the following departmental transfer credit guidelines:

- No more than 4 courses (12 credit hours) of transfer credit from U.S. or international universities of similar standing as Rice may apply towards the major. Exceptions may be granted at the discretion of the major advisor.
- Requests for transfer credit will be considered by the departmental Director of Undergraduate Studies (and/or the program's official transfer credit advisor) on an individual case-by-case basis.
- The English department does not award Rice equivalent transfer credit for coursework taken at community colleges, "for-profit" universities, or two-year colleges. Exceptions may be granted at the discretion of the major advisor.

Distribution Credit Information

The determination of distribution credit eligibility is done initially as part of the new course creation process (<https://registrar.rice.edu/facstaff/courseprocess/>). Additionally, as part of an annual roll call (https://registrar.rice.edu/facstaff/distribution_credit/) coordinated each Spring by the Office of the Registrar, course distribution credit eligibility is routinely reviewed and reaffirmed by the Dean's Offices of each of the academic schools.

Faculty and leadership in the academic schools are responsible for ensuring that the courses identified as distribution-credit-eligible meet the criteria as set in the General Announcements (<https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements/#text>). Students are responsible for ensuring that they meet graduation requirements (<https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-> students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements/#text) by completing coursework designated as distribution-credit-eligible at the time of course registration.

Distribution courses from English (ENGL) aim to develop students' critical and aesthetic understanding of texts and the arts, lead students to examine ideas and values, and introduce students to the craft of writing as it poses conceptual and intellectual problems. They engage students with works of culture that have intellectual importance by virtue of the ideas that they express, their historical influence, mode of expression, and critical engagement with established cultural assumptions and traditions.

Academic Honors

The university recognizes academic excellence achieved over an undergraduate's academic history at Rice. For information on university honors, please see Latin Honors \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/honors-distinctions/university/\) (summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude) and Distinction in Research and Creative Work \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/honors-distinctions/university/\). Some departments have department-specific Honors awards or designations.

Study Abroad Program for English Majors at the University of Exeter

English majors may opt to spend the spring semester of their junior year at the University of Exeter in the U.K. Students planning to do so should complete ENGL 200 and ENGL 300 by the fall semester of their junior year (the semester preceding study abroad). At Exeter, students will take 2 courses or modules (each worth 30 Exeter credits) from Rice's approved list of Exeter Courses.

The approved courses taken abroad will be articulated on the Rice transcript as ENGL 325 (two instances of 3 credit hours each) with the remaining credit hours articulated as general TRAN credit. Final Exeter grades will also appear on the Rice transcript and be counted in the student's overall Rice GPA. With pre-approval from the Department, ENGL 325 may additionally count toward major field requirements (Pre-1800, Pre-1900, or Critical Race, Postcolonial, and Gender Studies).

For more information, please consult the Director of Undergraduate Studies \(https://english.rice.edu/about/contact/\) in the English department and the Rice Study Abroad Office \(https://abroad.rice.edu/\).
